MEMO

To: Delegates to the 2004 Convention
From: Nominating Committee
Date: January 17, 2004
Subject: Interim Nomination Report

The report of the Nominating Committee shows the incumbents and the vacancies which need to be filled. It is the request of the committee that each delegate would peruse the report and pray about the vacancies to be filled. If any of the delegates or members of church congregations have any suggestions the members of the Nominating Committee may be contacted. The addresses are shown below. If the delegates will nominate persons from the floor of the convention, the consent of the proposed nominee should have been obtained previously.

The Nominating Committee has been contacting prospective nominees, and an updated report will be available at the convention on March 12-13, 2004.
